TESTIMONIAL

I've been working with the Mediacurrent team for some time on a number of web related initiatives predicated around the Drupal CMS. We have been gradually adding new features and functionality over several phases to NASCAR's local racing series site with Mediacurrent's help.

I've been really pleased with not only their subject matter expertise in Drupal, but customer centric philosophy. They respond to requests in a timely manner, offer consultative direction when needed, and are extremely professional. I have no problem enthusiastically recommending Mediacurrent's services to an organization considering them for Drupal related work.
